Rejoice and revel, for the new KFJC program guide has come...

What can be uttered regarding this shining signal of inspirational independence that has not here-to-for been categorized? Yes, KFJC: Infamously formidable beacon of unconstrained imagination... KFJC: Moveable feast with a 24 hour buffet proudly serving the public melanges of musical miscellany, hodge podge hand grenades and jumbo variety packs... KFJC: Spiritual home to mutational, transformational concentrations of innovation... KFJC: Shifting meditation medleys constructed of micro-genre and mega-trend... KFJC: Practitioners of a decades long secret infiltration campaign targeted at the silicon breadbasket and greater bay arena... KFJC: Invisible death rays emanating from high atop Black Mountain on an assigned carrier frequency... KFJC: An outlandish onslaught against boredom, mediocrity and mass media mono-culture... KFJC: Propagating beyond the skin, behind the third eye, through out the neo-boundaries of California... KFJC: Non-prescription multi-medications doctoring chronic corporate consumption... KFJC: Behold the divergent difference floating at fm channel 89.7... KFJC: Front line reconnaissance from the anti-commercial/anti-alternative killing fields... KFJC: The ultimate power-mad scheme? Pan-global domination... KFJC: Historically continuous while distinctively ever-changing... KFJC: Tune out, move away, melt your hi-fi, we'll still be here when you return... Bolster the forces of freedom... Listen, donate and/or join up... KFJC and you: fighting the good fight... Keep your ears and mind wide open for future transmissions... Thanks be to you...

THANK YOU LISTENERS!

As in years past, you, the KFJC listener have made the annual fundraiser a success. And not just in a financial sense.

Each year, KFJC staff members sit at the phones waiting for your call in which you donate generously to the operation of a radio station that strives to be special and musically diverse. You give us money, but then you add your comments about how important KFJC is to you. You tell us about how difficult it would be to leave the Bay Area, because it would mean not having access to your FINE 89. You verbally express your praise for KFJC and how it sounds so much better than other college radio stations in the area. In fact, you even tell us how you ENJOY the way we conduct our fundraiser.

The money you donate makes it possible for us to meet our basic operating costs and improve our technology, which, in turn helps the sound you hear on your WAVE OF THE WEST. The comments you donate move us, the staff, to continue our efforts to be that special, musically diverse, atypical college radio station that you have come to know as your SOURCE FOR SOUND, 89.7 FM, KFJC.
